

I request that the FCC begin a systematic review of communication towers and bird mortality issues, institute a research program to identify tower placement, all towers should be subjected to environmental review, and implement immediate protections based on existing data, developed by the US Fish and Wildlife Service.